

Requirements for the post of the Deputy Principal

We are looking for a new Deputy Principal whose task will be to build upon the strengths of the school and lead it into the next phase of its development. The school is presently undergoing a self study towards CIS accreditation has an excellent track record under the current management of the Principal. The school has also just introduced IGCSE and A levels and now is considering introducing IB over the next few years

The ideal candidate will satisfy the following requirements:

- A university degree and higher degree
- NPQH preferred
- Successful teaching experience in GCSE / A level / IB programs or international equivalent
- Leadership experience in some of the following areas:
 - Curriculum Development especially in the UK National Curriculum
 - Personnel Administration and Recruitment
 - Educational Development Planning
 - Pastoral Care and Counseling
 - School Finance
- Experience of sixth form development an advantage
- Experience of teaching in the Middle East
- Proven IT skills and knowledge of IT applications necessary for job efficiency and effectiveness
- Experience of school leadership in a similar post